

Features/uses of MS Word:

- Application software easy to access.
- User friendly
- Allows user to format and edit text/files.
- Helps user to create documents, resumes, reports, write research articles etc.
- Formatting makes a document easy to read, ~~and~~ look appealing and visually interactive.
- Templates (predefined format) can be used to reduce the efforts and time of the user.

Features/uses of Excel:

- Popular data management software.
- Calculations can be performed using formula.
- Data can be visually represented using graphs. Comparisons are easily made with Graphs.
- Used in Scientific and engineering field to analyze data.
- Provides mathematical, financial and statistical solutions.
- Data can be easily categorized.
- Data can be sorted and filtered easily.

Features of Powerpoint:

- Helps to prepare a presentation
- Saves time
- Supports teaching
- ~~Help~~ Can include Audio, video, pictures
- Helps to include graphs.
- Animations helps to ~~make~~ attractive learners / viewers.

Toolbars:

Standard toolbar:

- Known as Ribbon.
- Holds quickly access functions.
- Displays commands as icons.
- Provides shortcut for frequently used commands.

Formatting toolbar

- Holds commands as icons
- Helps to apply formatting with just one click.
- Saves time of navigating.

Title bar:

- Horizontal bar at the top of the Application.
- Displays the title.
- Holds 3 buttons in the right corner minimize, Restore and Close.

Menu bar:

29

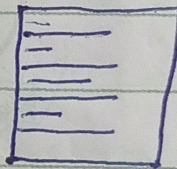

- Contains a group of commands listed under specific tab.
- Holds drop-down commands in one or two levels.

Status bar:

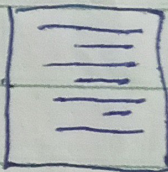

- Present at the bottom of the window.
- Displays the current status of the window.

Alignment:

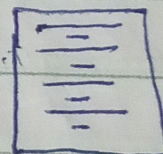

Left Align - Aligns text to the left of the page

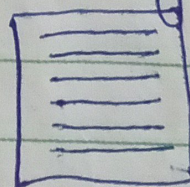

Right Align - Aligns text to the right of the page.

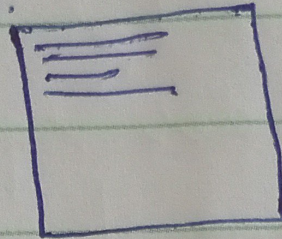

Centre Align: Aligns text to the centre of the page.

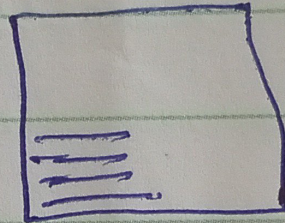

Justify Align - Aligns text from left to right margins.

Top Alignment: ³² Aligns elements at the top of the cell.

Bottom Alignment.

Aligns elements at the bottom of the cell.